

TUMCO Interpretive Walk — Snapshots in Time

Hedges: The West Neighborhood, ca. 1900

When: Saturday, April 6, 2013

Where: Meet at the Tumco Kiosk at 9:00 am.

Who: 20 person limit, sign-up required.*

Join a BLM Park Ranger for a free interpretive walk to explore the historic mining town of Tumco. Approximately 2.5 miles in length, the walk will take 3-4 hours as we explore remnants of town and mining life. Wear sturdy shoes, bring a hat, water, snacks and sunscreen.

Be prepared for warm weather!

From Interstate 8, follow Ogilby Road (S34) nine miles north. Turn east at the Tumco sign, and follow the dirt route (suitable for 2WD vehicles) approximately 1/4 mile to the parking area and kiosk. The walk will start here.
